WE NEED HELP! I am 80 years old, poor health, bad heart. In August 2025 we lost our 16 year old dog. My wife and I need another friend (more so for my wife because of my health). We found one in Sept. 2025, 5 years old, Lapso-Apso/Maltese mix. In the Spring of this year, we took him to our vet for a check-up, found out he had a slight case Lyme disease and put him on antibiotics. After 14 days on meds, he got sick. Went back to the vet, they x-rayed his belly, came back in and told me his belly is full of cancer. We took him home and he died 5 days later. Our Spirits are broken. We need a SMALL breed adult dog, male or female, something we can handle. If you can help, please call Charles or Nancy @ 207-210-7506.

OBITUARY

Arlene Ella Thombs

Arlene Ella Thombs has finally made it to the arms of Jesus on November 8, 2026. The last few years were tough as she just wanted to go home to her loved ones who passed on before her.

Arlene was born Arlene Ella Fluent in Waterboro, Maine in May 1932 to Lillian Ada Young and Ray Albion Fluent. She grew up on the family farm with her two sisters, where she found being out in the sunshine and growing plants were her passion. She could tell stories of those younger days which would always put a smile on everyone's face.

She married Randall A. Thombs and went on to have three children, Madeline, Eugene and James. She loved her family unconditionally and was an excellent homemaker thanks to her in-laws Ivy, Henry and Mildred Thombs. She made beautiful sweaters, wallpapered and painted, and kept her flower and vegetable gardens. Weekly coffee clutch with Izzy, Vera and Pat and daily walks with Barbara. Arlene was always up for an adventure whether with family or the neighborhood kids, picnics, drives through the White Mountains, blueberry, strawberry and apple picking. The neighbor kids would always know when they came to "Ma's" house they would get a meal or her famous Whoopie Pies. She especially embraced the Thorne crew who were always ready to adventure with her.

Special thanks go out to Shelly, Scott and Gavin McCulloch for letting her be at her home for 20 years. To Sharon and Arthur Osgood and Michael Thorne who were there til the end, the Newton family and Sally who always made sure she was safe.

Arlene was predeceased by her husband Randall; children Madeline and Eugene; and sisters Muriel and Ethel.

She leaves behind son James (Marlene); nieces Lana Roberts, Louise Osgood, Gladys McMillian and Lola Bendly; grandchildren Eugene Thombs, Jr., Kim (Brian) Howard, Megan (George) Hoitt, Jeremy (Susan) Thombs and Andrew Thombs; as well as five great grandchildren. May you be in Peace, you are forever in our hearts.

Arrangements are under the care of Chandler Funeral Homes & Cremation Service, 8 Elm Street, Bridgton. Online condolences may be shared with her family at www.chandlerfunerals.com.

OBITUARY

Linda Elaine (Sheppard) Brower

CORNISH - Linda Elaine (Sheppard) Brower died at home, surrounded by family, on November 12th, 2026, at 5:24 pm after a multi-year battle with liver cancer. She wanted to ensure her voice was reflected in her obituary, which she authored over the final two months of her life.

Born May 17th, 1947, at 10:08 am (the time is important for astrology folks, have at it!), Linda grew up in the Washington, D.C. area, where her father worked at the Pentagon and her mother worked at the Dirksen Senate Office Building. While she considered Washington her second home, Linda felt fortunate to have her true home in Cornish, where kindness and generosity are visible every day.

Despite growing up in towns and cities, you could find her by the creek catching snakes and carrying them home to show off her prowess and skill. You could call her a nature girl, as she embraced the beauty, fragility, and ecstasy of the outside. She had an early start learning about the way of nature. You wouldn't know it, but she was a shy child who was very fortunate to have a father who was not shy — E.H. Sheppard was entrepreneurial and outgoing.

She attended school and couldn't wait to go outside for recess. She was a good student, always asking questions and searching for answers to "Why?" In June of 1965, Linda graduated from Herndon High School and continued her education at Mars Hill College, with drive, verve, and love of language shaping her courses and extracurriculars. Known as "Shep" at MHC, she shared her poetry in her sophomore year Contemporary Poetry class, likely leading to her selection as Editor of the Cadenza, the Mars Hill College arts and literary magazine. Mars Hill College was a great place for a shy student to blossom, and Linda reveled in exploring religion, culture, literature, and music. She was aiming to be a teacher, then, and had a way with words as far back as the fifth grade.

Reflecting on her life, she was very proud that her tombstone would carry just one descriptor: Poet. Almost anyone can be a writer, but there is something sustaining for the soul in poetry, both one's own and others'.

Linda met her husband, John Brower, at Mars Hill College. They "were two big dreamers" who fell in love in college and married on June 8th, 1968. They stayed together ever since, through thick and thin. So many plans came out of the blending of the dreamers (from touring around Europe by VW Bus to starting their own business, both of which came to fruition), with Linda always being up for an adventure (if not kicking one off herself!). One summer, Linda and her best college friend, Cyndi Arthur Rankin, found a waitressing summer job in Kennebunk, ME after seeing a job listing in the Washington Post. With no prior experience, they caught several buses from Mars Hill College, through NYC and Boston, learned on the job, then explored coastal Maine. That same friend taught Linda how to ask questions that could start a conversation politely, leading to her famous "When is your birthday?" opener that she used the rest of her life.

Later in the summer of '68, prior to John deploying to Germany, Linda played short-order cook with a standing order of five fried eggs every morning for John before his training. Living in Germany for two years during the Vietnam War gave a lot of perspective and generated joyous stories. She wanted to stay there and explore the European way of life, but she returned to the United States to give birth to her first daughter, Kartika.

After returning to the States, Linda and John struck out on their own, north to Maine (inspired by "Snow-Bound" by John Greenleaf Whittier), and found that Cornish was the perfect place to call home for 53 years. Together, Linda and John had a business building furniture and fine cabinets for customers across Maine and New England. She cherished the beauty of the woodworking they created, always striving to understand a customer's desires and deliver something that exceeded them.

She was always good in emergencies, whether it was her son being hit by a softball bat and splitting his cheek (without a car at home, thank you to the Bensons for the ride to Maine Med for stitches), John losing the tip of a finger to a wood jointer, or car accidents. In an instant, she could think through and feel the consequences of every choice. She characterized this as a "blessing from the Universe," because there were always emergencies in the family and within her broader friend group.

Family, raising children, nurturing relationships, and building and maintaining strong friendships were ever-present joys in her life. She was remarkable in her ability to relate with anyone, whether it be a shopkeeper, waitress, writer, artist, child, parent, dancer, ed-tech, tutor, student, hospice carer, or gravedigger (she was each of these, herself). Through earnest dialogue, curiosity, and care for their entire being, she put people at ease and committed their personal stories to memory. She and John opened their home to many: friends of their children, community members who needed a place to land and rebuild, and those in need. Love of others was key to her spirit, and she had many great loves in her life: starting with E.H. Sheppard, then John, then her children, and her dear companion, Georgia Lamb.

Linda was predeceased by father Edward Howard Sheppard, Jr. on April 6th, 1968, mother Freda Jackson Sheppard on August 15th, 1992, and friend and companion Georgia Lamb on March 29th, 2013. She is survived by John Brower, her devoted husband of 58 years, and by a sibling. She is also survived by her children and grandchildren: Kartika Wright and her husband Scott, Castine Clerkin and her husband Gene (with sons Kaeran and Seamus), Kelly Brower, and Austin Brower and his husband Jeremy Yan.

Visitation services will be held on November 20th, 2026 from 4 - 6 PM at Poitras, Neal & York Funeral Home at 71 Maple Street, Cornish, ME. Bring your stories and memories of Linda; the family asks only that you wear a color you love to celebrate her life. Linda's family is deeply grateful to Northern Light Cancer Care and Infusion Services in Portland, Northern Light Home Care & Hospice, and every member of Linda's extended community who shared time with her and visited her bookstore, Gala Books, in the last months of her life. A celebration of life will be held in Spring-Summer 2027, date to be determined, followed by burial at Riverside Cemetery.

WHY DIRFY GENERATORS AND HEAT PUMPS?

- We do not have to say we are #1, others say it for us
- We have 7 years of plaques voted #1 in public voting
- We have 13 yrs of certificates showing we are the #1 dealer in Maine
- We received a certificate showing we are the #1 dealer in New England, even with our sales being in Maine
- We have been recognized in a national magazine as the top dealer in the Northeast
- We have our award-winning Reward program where customers get back rewards, upwards of tens of thousands of dollars every year.

Where our motto is
"Customer Satisfaction Doesn't Happen By Accident"

WHAT ELSE MAKES US #1?

- ✔ We have generators that come with 10 yr parts, labor, and travel warranty
- ✔ All our heat pumps come with 12 yr parts, labor, and travel warranty, not like other dealers who have 12yrs warranty just on parts.
- ✔ We give back to our customers, such as a current give back. We are currently sending $25.00 to each customer that have a sign displayed at their home because sales have exceeded projections (about $7,000.00 this time around). Yes, giving back is our goal.
- ✔ Due to our volume, our pricing is lower than anyone else.
- ✔ Offering an alternative back up system for folks with portable generators.

GENERATORS 10 YEAR PARTS, LABOR & TRAVEL WARRANTY

HEAT PUMPS 12 YEAR PARTS, LABOR & TRAVEL WARRANTY

WE HAVE GENERATORS STARTING AT LESS THAN $100/MO. OAC

DUE TO OUR VOLUME, WE CAN INSTALL MOST GENERATORS FOR LESS, INCLUDING BRIGGS, GENERAC, KOHLER, AND CHAMPION.
